1. [redacted] Dr. George Hanna, prominent doctor and non-Communist(?) member of the Lebanese cultural mission to Moscow, and Antun Tabit, a leading Communist, are continuously engaged in an effort to encourage important Lebanese merchants to trade with the U.S.S.R. These two men are said to be responsible for a petition to this effect which they submitted to President Bisharah Khuri.

2. Anatoli Dnieprovski, Soviet Commercial Attaché in Beirut, is also making a concerted effort to interest local merchants in trade with the Soviet Union. In addition, he is believed to be collecting statistics on Lebanese trade with Western Europe and the U.S.A.

- 25X1X 3. The following list, [redacted] indicates 25X1X those Lebanese merchants who do trade with the U.S.S.R. or with its satellites.
